No Insurance Allowed Schools under Present Ohio Legal Ruling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Every youngster who takes a driver training course in an Ohio school also takes a risk, safety and education officials admit. They hope the legislature will do something about it.

The director of safety and education for the Ohio State Auto Assn., Charles D. Vibberts, explains it this way:

"Because of an Ohio attorney general's ruling, the 710 schools in the state which offer driver training cannot take out liability insurance for youngsters taking the course.

"Unless the parents arrange coverage—and I can tell you very few have—the youngster is not protected. Those who teach the course usually have some kind of coverage as a matter of personal protection.

"We hope the legislature will amend the law to permit insurance protection."

Vibberts and P. C. Bechtel, head of the State Education Department's Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Safety Sub-Division, agree that driver training in Ohio costs about $34 per student, approximately the national average for such courses.

Records indicate no school is using more than one car. All are equipped with dual controls. Between 650 and 675 of the 710 cars now being used are supplied by automobile dealers in communities near the school, Bechtel says, and where rent is charged, it varies with the community.

"It's a personal opinion, but I think the time will come when school boards will have to buy cars, just as they do other equipment, and not depend on outside sources," Vibberts adds.

"At present, 830 teachers, 14 principals and 13 superintendents are teaching driver training at 166 city, 456 county, 69 exempted village, 15 private and parochial, and four state-supported schools. Lakewood and the Ohio School for the Deaf at Columbus were apparently the first in Ohio to offer the course, during the 1935-36 school year. The next year, McGuffey and Stewart schools in Oxford also offered the training. A. K. Cook, who originally taught the class at Lakewood, is still active and apparently senior among Ohio driving training instructors.

In 1942, responsibility for such instruction was put upon the State Education Department by state law. Only one fatal accident is noted on the records. It occurred several years ago in southeast Ohio. Ohio law calls for 60 hours of instruction, 36 in the classroom. A minimum of six hours must be spent behind the wheel. Parents have to give written consent, and the student must be at least 15. Where the youngster is not at least 16, the instructor requests a restricted temporary permit.

Pilot Ejected Through Canopy

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Lt. Cmdr. Ralph Fielding shot himself head first through the canopy of his jet training plane at only 150 feet altitude. He accidentally had touched the ejection button. He escaped with a broken leg; no headache.

"It was quite a sensation," he said in Oak Knoll Naval Hospital. "They said I landed only six seconds after I touched the button. It's almost impossible to say how I really did feel. I was saved by my nylon elevator."

The chute opened automatically 1½ seconds after Fielding was shot not more than 50 feet above the plane—an altitude of only 20 feet.

Cuban People Hail Castro Blood Bath

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Cubans hailed rebel leader Fidel Castro today for his warning against U. S. meddling in the revolutionary war crimes trials.

Newspapers gave it front-page play along with a declaration by Asst. Secretary of State Roy Rubottom that the United States is not going to intervene.

Both Castro and Provisional President Manuel Urrutia said Cuba wants cordial relations with its big neighbor to the north, but not at the price of halting executions because of American criticism.

Fresh shootings brought the death roll of the firing squads to 200.

Raul Castro, younger brother of the civil war victor, said four mass graves had been found in Oriente province with bodies of 182 persons killed by Batista's followers.

The government announced it will press for the extradition of deposed President Fulgencio Batista and return of the aircraft in which he and his close associates fled to the Dominican Republic New Year's Day.

The revolutionary military intelligence service charged Batista was trying to organize an expeditionary force in the Dominican Republic and in Guatemala to attack Cuba.

Castro warned Thursday against any U. S. intervention to stop executions ordered by military courts for murder and torture during Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship.

"If the United States comes here, we will make trenches in the streets," the rebel leader told the Havana Rotary Club. The State Department said in Washington that American policy was "strictly one of nonintervention in Cuban domestic affairs."

Noting some U. S. congressional protests to the executions, Asst. Secretary of State Roy Rubottom said, "We are not going to intervene in what is essentially Cuba's affairs."

To avoid misunderstanding, the U. S. Navy canceled previous plans for 3,000 U. S. Marines en route to maneuvers near Puerto Rico to stop at the American Navy base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Castro earlier Thursday, in remarks to a group in his hotel lobby, had said that if U. S. Marines are sent to Cuba "200,000 gringos will die." Gringo is the derogatory Latin American term for U. S. citizens. There are 12,000 of them in Cuba.

Castro later told the Rotary Club he had not realized this comment would be published but he stood by it.

The rebel chief's vision of U. S. troops landing in Cuba apparently stemmed from demands by critics in the U. S. Congress that the United States do something to stop the Cuban firing squads.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A first-degree murder warrant has been issued against Charles E. Montague on the basis of a photograph made of his wife at a sorority party the night of Jan. 6.

The color photograph snapped by an amateur who was concentrating on another subject, showed a profile of Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, 32, mother of two. She was wearing a large golden earring.

Thirteen hours after Mrs. Montague left the party, her body was found in her car, parked across the street from the apartment house where the party was held. She had been strangled. Her body had been mutilated. No earrings were found on her body or at the scene.

Montague was arrested Tuesday for further questioning. Officers said they found on him a pair of earrings which match the one shown in the photograph. They said Montague told them he found the earrings in his apartment.

Circuit Atty. Thomas F. Eagleton issued the murder warrant Thursday after viewing an enlargement of the snapshot. At the time, Montague was seeking a court order releasing him from Malcolm Bliss Mental Hospital. Police committed him on suspicion of being a dangerous person after Montague, 34, had won a court order Wednesday releasing him from jail.

Montague has been returned to the hospital. He is a ward of the St. Louis Court of Appeals until it rules on his petition for release from the hospital. If and when he is released, he will be arrested on the murder charge, Eagleton said.

Dulles, Mikoyan Holding Parley

East-West Deadlock On Berlin Studied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Anastas I. Mikoyan and Secretary of State Dulles met today for talks on the East-West deadlock over German unification and the future of disputed Berlin.

Their discussion could lead to an early, high level East-West meeting on the whole range of German problems.

Today's session—the second during Mikoyan's two-weeks visit to this country—was described by diplomats as strictly a probing operation with each of the veteran antagonists of the cold war seeking to discover possible weaknesses or concessions in the policies of the other.

Mikoyan told a New York news conference Thursday his country still wants a summit conference on world problems. He said the West cannot sidestep one forever.

He expressed interest in Dulles' statement Tuesday that free elections were not the only way to reunify Germany. But he contended that Dulles "did not come up with a constructive alternative" to the Soviet plan.

Dulles modified his news conference remark a bit, saying through a spokesman that free elections afford the most natural and practical method. But his mention of possible other methods—his first such suggestion in years—could introduce a degree of flexibility in the U. S. position in case the Russians seriously want to negotiate.

State Department officials said Mikoyan's cross-country tour appears to have been a great success from the Soviet viewpoint. But they have found little evidence of a real Soviet willingness to make any concessions to solve the East-West dispute over Germany.

Jones Quits As Boss of State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Agriculture Director Robert Terhune announced today the resignation of D. Robert Jones as State Fair manager, effective Feb. 14.

A resident of Radnor, Delaware County, Jones has been associated with the State Fair for the last 12 years and was named manager after a number of years as head of the junior fair division.

Terhune said he has 18 applicants for the job. He plans to make recommendation on the 1959 fair program at a special meeting of the Board of Agriculture next Wednesday.

The new director said he believes emphasis at the fair should be placed on agriculture, industry and youth and that the broadway and television type of entertainment should be kept at a minimum.

This year's fair will be held Aug. 28 to Sept. 4. The dates were approved by the Agriculture Board Thursday.

The 1958 fair lost approximately $30,000.

Ol' Man Winter Back -- with a Vengeance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Old Man Winter, after a short rest for balmy weather, was back in business today, dealing arctic air, snow and gusty winds over the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

Much colder weather is the forecast for Ohio. As the temperature dropped, slushy snow created hazardous highway conditions in the state.

Temperatures dropped as low as four above zero at Dayton by sunrise and even colder weather is expected tonight.

The Weather Bureau expects the snow to end in all sections of the state today except for some flurries near Lake Erie.

Thursday's snow was heaviest in the northeast with 10 inches on the ground at Ashtabula, 3 to 8 in the greater Cleveland area, 4½ to 6 at East Liverpool, 4 at Akron and Youngstown, 3 at Zanesville, 2 at Columbus and only 1 at Cincinnati.

The Ohio Department of Highways reported both main and secondary roads are snow-covered and slippery with some drifting, except west of a line marked by Batavia, Wilmington, Urbana, Van Wert, Defiance, Tiffin and Port Clinton.

Ohio Turnpike drivers were advised to use reasonable care.

The department reported three highways closed by high water: Ohio 146 at Pleasant City in Guernsey County; Ohio 285 between U. S. 40 and U. S. 22 in Guernsey County; Ohio 247 between Ohio 125 and 137 in Adams County.

In Toledo, a combination of light snow and freezing drizzle Thursday night was turned into treacherous sheets of ice on streets and highways today as the mercury dropped to 8 above.

It was three above zero in Cincinnati at mid-morning. The Weather Bureau forecast snow flurries and a high of 13 for the day, with the temperature dropping to zero tonight.

Stiff northerly winds, with gusts up to 40 m.p.h., swept across wide areas of the midcontinent, fanning the cold air southward into the western Gulf region and eastward across the Appalachians.

Sub-zero cold and biting winds stung northern Midwest regions. Most of the north central region shivered in near zero temperatures.

Temperatures of 15 degrees below zero and lower were reported in northern Minnesota and eastern North Dakota, with similar marks indicated in parts of South Dakota and Wisconsin.

Temperatures dropped as much as 30 degrees in most of the area from the Ohio Valley southwestward into the southern plains. It was freezing in Arkansas and western Tennessee and near the 32 mark in parts of Mississippi.

Heavy snow accompanied the cold in parts of the upper Ohio Valley, western New York and northern New England, with three inches in several sections. Snow flurries fell throughout the Great Lakes region.

A mixture of snow and rain and some freezing rain slicked highways and streets in southern New York state and southward across western Pennsylvania into West Virginia. Similar conditions were reported in New England and hazardous driving warnings were issued.

The mixture of snow or rain was expected to continue into the Middle Atlantic states, but changing to snow in most sections as colder air moves into the region.

Fairly mild weather prevailed in some areas east of the Appalachians, with temperatures in the upper 50s as far north as Washington.

Ohio's Cash Reserve To Be Small-DiSalle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says Ohio wound up 1958 with less than a million dollars in uncommitted cash reserves.

The figure contrasts sharply with the claim by former Gov. C. William O'Neill of a 20-million dollar surplus at year's end.

DiSalle announced his figure after a two-hour meeting Thursday with Finance Director James Maloon.

The new governor said traditional bookkeeping methods were used to compute the amount.

These same methods indicate that the state surplus dwindled about 77 million dollars during the last two years, he said.

During the O'Neill administration, DiSalle told his news conference, a major bookkeeping change was to drop the monthly practice of setting aside one-third of the state's quarterly school subsidy payment.

Last month, under the old system, $16,333,000 would have been set aside to meet the quarterly payment due in February, DiSalle explained. Since it wasn't, that gave the state that much more of a surplus under O'Neill's calculations.

Additionally, DiSalle said, nearly three million dollars' worth of miscellaneous small liabilities—$50 or less—were not included in O'Neill's figures.

Total liabilities not counted by O'Neill came to more than 19 million dollars, DiSalle said.

Coldwater Man, Sprints To Beat Train, Loses

COLDWATER, Ohio (AP)—A Nickel Plate Railroad freight train struck and killed 43-year-old Louis Theis Thursday night at a crossing here. The engineer of the train told police he saw Theis running in an attempt to beat the train to the crossing.

Ike's Veto Ready To Protect Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today was reported ready to make forceful use of his veto power if necessary to maintain the scant surplus in the 77-billion-dollar budget he will send to Congress Monday.

The message for fiscal 1960, which starts July 1, is expected to urge bipartisan support for an anti-inflationary squeeze on federal spending and closing of tax loopholes.

Eisenhower's target, administration sources have hinted, is to cut outlays to a level slightly above 77 billion dollars. It is hoped that revenues will exceed that amount, although the margin may be only 100 million dollars or less.

There will also be some bad fiscal news in the message, officials conceded—a slightly higher deficit than was anticipated for the current budget year.

Spending this year is expected to mount fairly close to 81 billion dollars, instead of the $79,200,000,000 estimated officially in September. Much of the increase is attributed to the proposed $1,400,000,000 increase in this country's subscription to the International Monetary Fund, which Eisenhower recommended last week.

Revenues will have risen to more than 68 billion dollars instead of the 67 billion officially predicted. But when the government year ends next June 30 the deficit reportedly will exceed by several hundred million dollars the earlier estimate of $12,200,000,000.

Officials said mounting concern over the depreciation of the dollar, coupled with concern lest this country eventually price itself out of world markets, has reinforced the administration's decision to make a strong stand against deficit financing.

Administration aides suggested Eisenhower will use the carrot-and-stick technique to win cooperation from the Democratic Congress.

He dangled the carrot in his State of the Union message—the hope that some tax relief may be possible in fiscal 1961 if the budget line is held in 1960.

The White House was represented as believing it will have support in the economy campaign from the leadership of both parties in Congress. The two Texas Democrats, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn frequently have taken a conservative line on fiscal issues when some of their fellow party members have been urging new spending programs.

Colonel Outranks Ohio General?

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—"Nothing outranks a Kentucky Colonel," says Gov. Happy Chandler, not even a Buckeye General.

Chandler made the comment when informed that the Ohio Legislature has a bill before it to bestow the honorary title of Buckeye General for noteworthy achievements.

"Ohio can't create a synthetic general to outrank a colonel," Chandler laughed. "This is not just a new thing, you know. We've been making colonels since 1792."

9 Attorneys Set For Driver Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy today appointed nine assistant attorneys general to conduct driver license revocation proceedings.

Asst. Atty. Gen. James L. Power of Mansfield will head the revocation proceedings, conducted under the Ohio's point system.

Appointed were: Irwin Barnett, Cleveland; George J. Denis, Uhrichsville; Roy E. Gabbert, West Union; John J. Lynch, Youngstown; John J. McCrystal, Sandusky; Frank K. Svoboda, Dayton; Francis C. Smith, Ashland; Virginia Weiss, Newark, and Sylvian H. Wise, Lima.

There are about 350 revocation proceedings each month. Under the system, the registrar of motor vehicles moves to revoke a driver's license when he has accumulated 12 points during a two-year period.

Wise Declares Serious Fires Could Bring Problems

The near $1 million church fire at Washington C. H. this week has opened speculation on how such a blaze of this serious nature would affect Circleville.

Problems in fighting such a huge fire were brought to light Thursday when the Grace Methodist Church in Washington C. H. was destroyed.

Circleville Fire Chief Talmer Wise today said his department would face the same situation which pressed Washington firemen in the church fire.

The church blaze was answered by three WCH firemen, constituting the entire force which was on duty at the time. The WCH department employs seven firemen and a chief, with the work load broken down into two shifts.

INVESTIGATION revealed that one pumper and all three firemen arrived at the scene one minute after the alarm was sounded. The second piece of equipment, manned by a fireman and a citizen, arrived nine minutes later. The third truck went into action 13 minutes later.

According to standards set by the State Fire Marshall's office, Chief Wise said such fires in downtown areas should be answered by at least two pumper companies, manned by at least five firemen each.

The Circleville Department, staffed by eight firemen and the chief, would face the same situation as in Washington C. H., Wise said. The local department, working in three-man shifts, could send only one pumper initially, he added.

In case of a huge fire here, Chief Wise said he would be forced to dispatch one unit immediately to the scene, manned by all three firemen in order to get the unit into adequate operation.

Wise said the next step would be to get another truck to the scene as soon as possible. To do this he probably would have to send a fireman back to the station. In the meantime, off-duty firemen would be contacted by local police, the chief said.

Chief Wise also pointed out the seriousness of leaving the fire station unmanned when all three men in duty are dispatched to answer an alarm.

Montague was arrested Tuesday for further questioning. Officers said they found on him a pair of earrings which match the one shown in the photograph. They said Montague told them he found the earrings in his apartment.

Circuit Atty. Thomas F. Eagleton issued the murder warrant Thursday after viewing an enlargement of the snapshot. At the time, Montague was seeking a court order releasing him from Malcolm Bliss Mental Hospital. Police committed him on suspicion of being a dangerous person after Montague, 34, had won a court order Wednesday releasing him from jail.

Montague has been returned to the hospital. He is a ward of the St. Louis Court of Appeals until it rules on his petition for release from the hospital. If and when he is released, he will be arrested on the murder charge, Eagleton said.

Dulles, Mikoyan Holding Parley

East-West Deadlock On Berlin Studied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Anastas I. Mikoyan and Secretary of State Dulles met today for talks on the East-West deadlock over German unification and the future of disputed Berlin.

Their discussion could lead to an early, high level East-West meeting on the whole range of German problems.

Today's session—the second during Mikoyan's two-weeks visit to this country—was described by diplomats as a strictly a probing operation with each of the veteran antagonists of the cold war seeking to discover possible weaknesses or concessions in the policies of the other.

Mikoyan told a New York news conference Thursday his country still wants a summit conference on world problems. He said the West cannot sidestep one forever.

He expressed interest in Dulles' statement Tuesday that free elections were not the only way to reunify Germany. But he contended that Dulles "did not come up with a constructive alternative" to the Soviet plan.

Dulles modified his news conference remark a bit, saying through a spokesman that free elections afford the most natural and practical method. But his mention of possible other methods—his first such suggestion in years—could introduce a degree of flexibility in the U.S. position in case the Russians seriously want to negotiate.

State Department officials said Mikoyan's cross-country tour appears to have been a great success from the Soviet viewpoint. But they have found little evidence of a real Soviet willingness to make any concessions to solve the East-West dispute over Germany.

Jones Quits As Boss of State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Agriculture Director Robert Terhune announced today the resignation of D. Robert Jones as State Fair manager, effective Feb. 14.

A resident of Radnor, Delaware County, Jones has been associated with the State Fair for the last 12 years and was named manager after a number of years as head of the junior fair division.

Terhune said he has 18 applicants for the job. He plans to make recommendation on the 1959 fair program at a special meeting of the Board of Agriculture next Wednesday.

The new director said he believes emphasis at the fair should be placed on agriculture, industry and youth and that the broadway and television type of entertainment should be kept at a minimum.

This year's fair will be held Aug. 28 to Sept. 4. The dates were approved by the Agriculture Board Thursday.

The 1958 fair lost approximately $30,000.

Ol' Man Winter Back -- with a Vengeance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Old Man Winter, after a short rest for balmy weather, was back in business today, dealing arctic air, snow and gusty winds over the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

Much colder weather is the forecast for Ohio. As the temperature dropped, slushy snow created hazardous highway conditions in the state.

Temperatures dropped as low as four above zero at Dayton at sunrise and even colder weather is expected tonight.

The Weather Bureau expects the snow to end in all sections of the state today except for some flurries near Lake Erie.

Thursday's snow was heaviest in the northeast with 10 inches on the ground at Ashtabula, 3 to 8 in the greater Cleveland area, 4 1/2 to 6 at East Liverpool, 4 at Akron and Youngstown, 3 at Zanesville, 2 at Columbus and only 1 at Cincinnati.

The Ohio Department of Highways reported both main and secondary roads are snow-covered and slippery with some drifting, except west of a line marked by Batavia, Wilmington, Urbana, Van Wert, Defiance, Tiffin and Port Clinton.

Ohio Turnpike drivers were advised to use reasonable care.

The department reported three highways closed by high water: Ohio 146 at Pleasant City in Guernsey County; Ohio 285 between U. S. 40 and U.S. 22 in Guernsey County; Ohio 247 between Ohio 125 and 137 in Adams County.

In Toledo, a combination of light snow and freezing drizzle Thursday night was turned into treacherous sheets of ice on streets and highways today as the mercury dropped to 8 above.

It was three above zero in Cincinnati at mid-morning. The Weather Bureau forecast snow flurries and a high of 13 for the day, with the temperature dropping to zero tonight.

Stiff northerly winds, with gusts up to 40 m.p.h., swept across wide areas of the midcontinent, fanning the cold air southward into the western Gulf region and eastward across the Appalachians.

Sub-zero cold and biting winds stung northern Midwest regions. Most of the north central region shivered in near zero temperatures.

Temperatures of 15 degrees below zero and lower were reported in northern Minnesota and eastern North Dakota, with similar marks indicated in parts of South Dakota and Wisconsin.

Temperatures dropped as much as 30 degrees in most of the area from the Ohio Valley southwestward into the southern plains. It was freezing in Arkansas and western Tennessee and near the 32 mark in parts of Mississippi.

Heavy snow accompanied the cold in parts of the upper Ohio Valley, western New York and northern New England, with three inches in several sections. Snow flurries fell throughout the Great Lakes region.

A mixture of snow and rain and some freezing rain slicked highways and streets in southern New York state and southward across western Pennsylvania into West Virginia. Similar conditions were reported in New England and hazardous driving warnings were issued.

The mixture of snow or rain was expected to continue into the Middle Atlantic states, but changing to snow in most sections as colder air moves into the region.

Fairly mild weather prevailed in some areas east of the Appalachians, with temperatures in the upper 50s as far north as Washington.

The White House was represented as believing it will have support in the economy campaign from the leadership of both parties in Congress. The two Texas Democrats, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn frequently have taken a conservative line on fiscal issues when some of their fellow party members have been urging new spending programs.

Colonel Outranks Ohio General?

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—"Nothing outranks a Kentucky Colonel," says Gov. Happy Chandler, not even a Buckeye General.

Chandler made the comment when informed that the Ohio Legislature has a bill before it to bestow the honorary title of Buckeye General for noteworthy achievements.

"Ohio can't create a synthetic general to outrank a colonel," Chandler laughed. "This is not just a new thing, you know. We've been making colonels since 1792."

9 Attorneys Set For Driver Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy today appointed nine assistant attorneys general to conduct driver license revocation proceedings.

Asst. Atty. Gen. James L. Power of Mansfield will head the revocation proceedings, conducted under the Ohio's point system.

Appointed were: Irwin Barnett, Cleveland; George J. Demis, Uhrichville; Roy E. Gabbert, West Union; John J. Lynch, Youngstown; John J. McCrystal, Sandusky; Frank K. Svoboda, Dayton; Francis C. Smith, Ashland; Virginia Weiss, Newark, and Sylvian H. Wise, Lima.

There are about 350 revocation proceedings each month. Under the system, the registrar of motor vehicles moves to revoke a driver's license when he has accumulated 12 points during a two year period.

Hart is native of Walnut Twp. He was graduated from Circleville High School. He is a foreman at the local General Electric plant.

Wise Declares Serious Fires Could Bring Problems

The near $1 million church fire at Washington C. H. this week has opened speculation on how such a blaze of this serious nature would affect Circleville.

Problems in fighting such a huge fire were brought to light Thursday when the Grace Methodist Church in Washington C. H. was destroyed.

Circleville Fire Chief Talmer Wise today said his department would face the same situation which pressed Washington firemen in the church fire.

The church blaze was answered by three WCH firemen, constituting the entire force which was on duty at the time. The WCH department employs seven firemen and a chief, with the work load broken down into two shifts.

INVESTIGATION revealed that one pumper and all three firemen arrived at the scene one minute after the alarm was sounded. The second piece of equipment, manned by a fireman and a citizen, arrived nine minutes later. The third truck went into action 13 minutes later.

According to standards set by the State Fire Marshall's office, Chief Wise said such fires in downtown areas should be answered by at least two pumper companies, manned by at least five firemen each.

The Circleville Department, staffed by eight firemen and the chief, would face the same situation as in Washington C. H., Wise said. The local department, working in three-man shifts, could send only one pumper initially, he added.

In case of a huge fire here, Chief Wise said he would be forced to dispatch one unit immediately to the scene, manned by all three firemen in order to get the unit into adequate operation.

Wise said the next step would be to get another truck to the scene as soon as possible. To do this he probably would have to send a fireman back to the station. In the meantime, off-duty firemen would be contacted by local police, the chief said.

Chief Wise also pointed out the seriousness of leaving the fire station unmanned when all three men in duty are dispatched to answer an alarm.

Business Briefs

Orwin Drum, Manager of the Pickaway County Farm Bureau Cooperative Assn., was one of 75 county Farm Bureau managers who attended the annual managers conference in Columbus January 6 and 7.

Carrying out the Silver Anniversary theme, the program featured highlights of Farm Bureau progress during the past 25 years, as well as plans for the organization's continued progress during the coming years.

John Magill, owner and operator of the Western Auto Associate store here for the past 25 years, will attend a Western Auto Merchandise Show at New Castle, Penn., January 18 and 19. He will be accompanied by Roger Magill.

Magill explained that the New Castle, Pennsylvania merchandise show is one of 17 which will be held in January throughout the United States for more than 3,600 home-owned and operated Western Auto Associate Stores.

This is the 15th show that Magill has attended.

Aliens Reminded To Make Report

Henry J. Bouton, Officer in Charge of the local Immigration and Naturalization Service has again reminded all aliens to report their addresses during January.

Cards which which to make the reports are available at Post Offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service throughout the country. The reports must be submitted to one of those offices.

Parents or guardians submit reports for alien children under 14 years of age.

Bouton urges all aliens to report before the end of January, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious penalties.

2 Local Women In 'Who's Who'

Jesus Stresses Cost of Greatness

CHRIST TEACHES AND SETS US HIS EXAMPLE
OF MINISTRY TO OTHERS

Scripture—Mark 10:35-45

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

WHAT constitutes greatness in a man or woman? Is it his or her station in life? Or is it character displayed and concern and helpfulness given in words and deeds? Is it, in other words, min-istry to others, regardless of self?

The younger classes in the Sun-day school might be asked, Dr. Wilbur M. Smith suggests, if they had only one favor to ask of Jesus, would they ask it for them-selves or for someone else? The answer would show the individ-u-al's character.

The older classes might be asked to name men or women who, in their estimation, have been great people in history or now. Would they not choose men who had been of great help to their countries and to the people of their countries?

Jesus and His apostles were on their way to Jerusalem, although Christ knew that He would there face arrest and finally death.

Two brothers, James and John, sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus asking Him this favor: "Grant us that we may sit, one on Thy right hand, and the other on Thy left hand, in Thy glory."

Mark 10:35-37. The request was certainly selfish of these two Apostles. Why should they be honored in heaven before others?

The Lord's answer was: "Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

They answered in the affirma-tive, probably not knowing of the martyrdom which Jesus knew was to be His.

And Christ said to them: "Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: But to sit on My right hand and on My left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared."—Mark 10:39-40.

Although these companions of Jesus had been with Him and wit-nessed His selfless services to many, they still did not follow His example in their desire to be honored before their companions. They were not perfect Christians at this time. After Christ's death, they faithfully followed in His steps, forgetful of themselves.

The other apostles were an-gered by this request of James and John, but Jesus "called them to Him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are ac-counted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise author-ity upon them. But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be the servant of all. For even the son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many."—Mark 10:42-45.

This, then, is the ideal which we must impress on our young people, from the small to the adult groups. Jesus came to minister to others, not to save Himself. So we all must strive to follow

His example.

To the small girls in a class it might be asked, do they do cheer-fully the household tasks given in their homes? The dishwashing, dusting, etc.? Do the boys in a family take over their "chores" of keeping the lawn mowed, shoveling snow in winter, know-ing that is the service which Christ meant as applied to our modern day?

There are many fine organiza-tions in our own country whose aims and ideals are contained in the words, "institutions for ser-vice." How many can you name in your own community and in the world?

You and I may never attain greatness in the way that our names appear in newspapers, magazines, etc., "but we can all attain the greatness that Jesus accounts greatness, giving ser-vice to others, even if it involves sacrifice." Dr. Wilbur M. Smith suggests.

Methodists Top List of U.S. Solons

NEW YORK (AP) — Religion-wise, Methodists have the biggest representation in the new Con-gress. There are 90 of them.

Roman Catholics run second, with 79 members of the House and Senate; Baptists third, with 62; Presbyterians fourth, with 56, and Episcopalians a close sixth, with 51.

The figures were released today by the Southern Baptist Con-vention, after a survey by its Wash-ington office of available biog-raphies.

The report said 79 congressmen listed no religious affiliation.

Methodists top the list in both houses.

In the Senate, Baptists are sec-ond and Roman Catholics third. In the House, the order is re-versed, with the edge to Catholics.

Similarly, the Episcopalians have the fourth largest delegation in the Senate, but Presbyterians outnumber them in the House.

The report said Presbyterians have more members on the U.S. Supreme Court than any other denomination—three out of nine.

Although Chief Justice Earl Warren is unaffiliated, the report said, he has a Methodist back-ground and occasionally attends a Baptist church with his wife.

Religious affiliations of the other justices were listed as:

Hugo L. Black, Baptist; Felix Frankfurter, Jewish; William O. Douglas, Presbyterian; Tom C. Clark, Presbyterian; John Mar-shall Harlan, Presbyterian; Wil-liam Joseph Brennan Jr., Roman Catholic; Charles Evans Whit-taker, Methodist; Potter Stewart, Episcopalian.

Long Winter Ailment Is Blamed on 'Flue'

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Emma Little's winter-long ailment has been diagnosed as the flue — with an "E."

Doctors had examined her but failed to turn up the cause of her headaches, nausea, loss of weight and weakness.

Then they found that people who visited her got sick, too.

A check of the furnace showed the flue leaking carbon monoxide into the house.

Now the flue is all right and Mrs. Little is getting better.

Parakeet Thief Brings Store New Business

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A man stole a parakeet from a cage in a downtown store, stuck it in his pocket and sold it outside for 75 cents to a man, who promptly entered the store and bought a cage for it. A clerk confirmed the story.

Several Bright Spots Noted On Coming Television Menu

NEW YORK (AP)—It's not such a routine week in television as you might think from a casual glance at the listings for the next seven days.

On Sunday afternoon:

An NBC news team will analyze the outlook for the 86th Congress from Washington.

The Last Word returns to CBS — by popular demand of a host of viewers who enjoy wit, words and wisdom.

A new program, The World of Ideas, makes its debut, also on CBS. Guests on the program will discuss the principles by which we live.

An hour satire on Hollywood, "Malice in Wonderland," will be seen on Omnibus over NBC.

NBC's Meet the Press extends its time to a full hour Sunday for an interview with visiting soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Miko-yan.

The Twentieth Century on CBS offers the first of a two-part study of juvenile delinquency Sunday.

On Monday evening ABC pre-sents "Youth Anonymous," an examination of Detroit's success-ful curbing of juvenile delinquen-cy.

Bold Journey travels along in its customary spot on ABC, with this one a journey to Costa Rica.

Lowell Thomas offers viewers another High Adventure on CBS — this time on a U.S. Navy IGY expedition to a remote Pacific atoll for a look at the world's first use of rocket astronomy in the study of a solar eclipse.

On Wednesday, Edward R. Mur-row is the moderator of a special CBS News study of "The Lost Class of '59" in Norfolk, Va., where the integration problem is keeping 10,000 students from fur-thering their education. The pro-gram examines the effects of the closing of six public schools on the community.

Art Carney stars in what sounds like an interesting Playhouse 90 offering Thursday over CBS — a new Rod Serling original TV drama entitled "The Velvet Al-ley."

Phil Silvers is both himself and Sgt. Bilko in a special hour show on CBS Friday night. His guests include Diana Dors and Sidney Chaplin.

Toledo UAW Members Shun New Contract

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — United Auto Workers at four Toledo plants of Electric Auto-Lite Co. voted Thursday by margins of about 6-1 against a proposed na-tional contract and a suggested settlement of local issues. The executive committee of Local 12, which represents some 2,200 Au-to-Lite workers, had recommended against the proposals. Result of the voting assured that a strike begun here Nov. 17 would con-tinue regardless of how UAW members vote at Electric Auto-Lite plants in 11 other cities across the country.

Suva, the capital of Fiji, is one of the busiest cities in the Pacific. It is a center of trade and com-merce.

Episcopalian Chief Seeks Greater Unity

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new head of the Protestant Episcopal Church says he hopes for religious unity among all Christians and a fully integrated society for Amer-icans.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichten-berger, 49, son of a Wisconsin grocer, was inducted as presiding bishop Wednesday in a ritual of pageantry and prayer in Washing-ton cathedral.

He expressed his views in a ser-mon at the installation service and in a news conference which pre-ceded it.

Bishop Lichtenberger is the 21st clergyman to hold the highest ec-clesiastical and administrative of-fice of the church founded in 1789.

Retiring Bishop Henry Knox Sherill inducted Bishop Lichten-berger.

At a news conference Bishop Lichtenberger called desegregation a moral issue but said the country should move "as quickly and quietly as we can into a fully integrated society." In doing this, he added, Americans should recog-nize "extremely difficult" situa-tions existing in the South.

More Trucks, Fewer Cars Use Turnpike

CLEVELAND (AP) — There were more trucks and less cars on the Ohio Turnpike in 1958 com-pared with the previous year. Also more money was taken in and more miles traveled.

Those conclusions come from the Turnpike Commission's report and statement of operations re-leased today.

There were 9,213,575 passenger cars using the big toll road in 1958—a decrease of 130,194. But there were 2,012,580 trucks—an in-crease of 92,064 over 1957 usage.

The commission's toll revenue for 1958 was $17,264,675. That amounted to a jump of $883,771.

The average passenger car driver traveled 81.4 miles per trip and paid $1.22 in tolls during 1958. A year ago it was 80.4 miles and $1.16.

The truckers traveled 73.5 miles and paid $3.01 for the average trip in 1958, while a year ago it was 77.4 miles and $2.89.

Last month 740,378 vehicles — cars and trucks — were turnpike customers. It amounted to a drop of almost 40,000 vehicles from De-cember 1957, apparently because of the severe weather in the final month of 1958.

Auditor Asks Legal Rule on Salary Hikes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state auditor wants Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy's opinion on the status of pay raises for Gov. Di-Salle's new Cabinet.

James A. Rhodes wants to know whether he can legally pay the higher salaries or have to wait 90 days.

The question arose because the Ohio House took only one vote on a change in the Cabinet pay raise bill, an emergency measure en-acted last week.

Emergency legislation requires a double vote in both House and Senate to become effective at once. Regular legislation requires only one vote in each house but is effective only after 90 days.

Republican Rhodes approved payment of the higher salaries for the two and one half day pay period between inauguration and Wednesday but said he hoped Mc-Elroy will render his opinion be-fore the Jan. 31 payday.

Ohio statute forbids a change in salary for an official during his term in office. DiSalle said pre-viously he thought the pay raise act was in order and that his ap-ointees would not have to resign and then be reappointed to get the new pay.

Jesus Stresses Cost of Greatness

CHRIST TEACHES AND SETS US HIS EXAMPLE
OF MINISTRY TO OTHERS

Scripture—Mark 10:35-45

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

WHAT constitutes greatness in a man or woman? Is it his or her station in life? Or is it his character displayed and concern and helpfulness given in words and deeds? Is it, in other words, min-istry to others, regardless of self?

The younger classes in the Sun-day school might be asked, Dr. Wilbur M. Smith suggests, if they had only one favor to ask of Jesus, would they ask it for them-selves or for someone else? The answer would show the individ-ual's character.

The older classes might be asked to name men or women who, in their estimation, have been great people in history or now. Would they not choose men who had been of great help to their countries and to the people of their countries?

Jesus and His apostles were on their way to Jerusalem, although Christ knew that He would there face arrest and finally death.

Two brothers, James and John, sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus asking Him this favor: "Grant

many, they still did not follow His example in their desire to be honored before their companions. They were not perfect Christians at this time. After Christ's death, they faithfully followed in His steps, forgetful of themselves.

The other apostles were an-gered by this request of James and John, but Jesus "called them to Him, and said unto them, Ye know that they which are ac-counted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise author-ity upon them. But so shall it not be among you; but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be the servant of all. For even the son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many."—Mark 10:42-45.

This, then, is the ideal which we must impress on our young people, from the small to the adult groups. Jesus came to minister to others, not to save Himself. So we all must strive to follow His example.

To the small girls in a class it might be asked, do they do cheer-fully the household tasks given in their homes? The dishwashing, dusting, etc.? Do the boys in a family take over their "chores" of keeping the lawn mowed, shoveling snow in winter, know-ing that is the service which Christ meant as applied to our modern day?

There are many fine organiza-tions in our own country whose aims and ideals are contained in the words, "institutions for serv-ice." How many can you name in your own community and in the world?

You and I may never attain greatness in the way that our names appear in newspapers, magazines, etc., "but we can all attain the greatness that Jesus accounts greatness, giving serv-ice to others, even if it involves sacrifice." Dr. Wilbur M. Smith suggests.

unto us that we may sit, one on Thy right hand, and the other on Thy left hand, in Thy glory."—Mark 10:35-37. The request was certainly selfish of these two Apostles. Why should they be honored in heaven before others?

The Lord's answer was: "Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

They answered in the affirma-tive, probably not knowing of the martyrdom which Jesus knew was to be His.

And Christ said to them: "Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized with shall ye be baptized: But to sit on My right hand and on My left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared."—Mark 10:39-40.

Although these companions of Jesus had been with Him and wit-nessed His selfless services to

Methodists Top List of U.S. Solons

NEW YORK (AP) — Religion-wise, Methodists have the biggest representation in the new Con-gress. There are 90 of them.

Roman Catholics run second, with 79 members of the House and Senate; Baptists third, with 62; Presbyterians fourth, with 56, and Episcopalians a close sixth, with 51.

The figures were released today by the Southern Baptist Con-vention, after a survey by its Wash-ington office of available bio-graphies.

The report said 79 congressmen listed no religious affiliation.

Methodists top the list in both houses.

In the Senate, Baptists are sec-ond and Roman Catholics third. In the House, the order is re-versed, with the edge to Catholics.

Similarly, the Episcopalians have the fourth largest delegation in the Senate, but Presbyterians outnumber them in the House.

The report said Presbyterians have more members on the U.S. Supreme Court than any other de-nomination—three out of nine.

Although Chief Justice Earl Warren is unaffiliated, the report said, he has a Methodist back-ground and occasionally attends a Baptist church with his wife.

Religious affiliations of the other justices were listed as:

Hugo L. Black, Baptist; Felix Frankfurter, Jewish; William O. Douglas, Presbyterian; Tom C. Clark, Presbyterian; John Mar-shall Harlan, Presbyterian; Wil-liam Joseph Brennan Jr., Roman Catholic; Charles Evans Whitaker, Methodist; Potter Stewart, Episcopalian.

Long Winter Ailment Is Blamed on 'Flue'

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Emma Little's winter-long ailment has been diagnosed as the flue — with an "E."

Doctors had examined her but failed to turn up the cause of her headaches, nausea, loss of weight and weakness.

Then they found that people who visited her got sick, too.

A check of the furnace showed the flue leaking carbon monoxide into the house.

Now the flue is all right and Mrs. Little is getting better.

Parakeet Thief Brings Store New Business

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A man stole a parakeet from a cage in a downtown store, stuck it in his pocket and sold it outside for 75 cents to a man, who promptly entered the store and bought a cage for it. A clerk confirmed the story.

Several Bright Spots Noted On Coming Television Menu

NEW YORK (AP) — It's not such a routine week in television as you might think from a casual glance at the listings for the next seven days.

On Sunday afternoon:

An NBC news team will analyze the outlook for the 86th Congress from Washington.

The Last Word returns to CBS — by popular demand of a host of viewers who enjoy wit, words and wisdom.

A new program, The World of Ideas, makes its debut, also on CBS. Guests on the program will discuss the principles by which we live.

An hour satire on Hollywood, "Malice in Wonderland," will be seen on Omnibus over NBC.

NBC's Meet the Press extends its time to a full hour Sunday for an interview with visiting soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Miko-yan.

The Twentieth Century on CBS offers the first of a two-part study of juvenile delinquency Sunday.

On Monday evening ABC pre-sents "Youth Anonymous," an examination of Detroit's success-ful curbing of juvenile delinquen-cy.

Bold Journey travels along in its customary spot on ABC, with this one a journey to Costa Rica.

Lowell Thomas offers viewers another High Adventure on CBS — this time on a U.S. Navy IGY expedition to a remote Pacific atoll for a look at the world's first use of rocket astronomy in the study of a solar eclipse.

On Wednesday, Edward R. Mur-row is the moderator of a special CBS News study of "The Lost Class of '59" in Norfolk, Va., where the integration problem is keeping 10,000 students from fur-thering their education. The pro-gram examines the effects of the closing of six public schools on the community.

Art Carney stars in what sounds like an interesting Playhouse 90 offering Thursday over CBS — a new Rod Serling original TV drama entitled "The Velvet Al-ley."

Phil Silvers is both himself and Sgt. Bilko in a special hour show on CBS Friday night. His guests include Diana Dors and Sidney Chaplin.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichten-berger, 49, son of a Wisconsin grocer, was inducted as presiding bishop Wednesday in a ritual of pageantry and prayer in Washing-ton cathedral.

He expressed his views in a ser-mon at the installation service and in a news conference which pre-ceded it.

Bishop Lichtenberger is the 21st clergyman to hold the highest ec-clesiastical and administrative of-fice of the church founded in 1789.

Retiring Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill inducted Bishop Lichten-berger.

At a news conference Bishop Lichtenberger called desegrega-tion a moral issue but said the country should move "as quickly and quietly as we can into a fully integrated society."

In doing this, he added, Americans should recog-nize "extremely difficult" situa-tions existing in the South.

More Trucks, Fewer Cars Use Turnpike

CLEVELAND (AP) — There were more trucks and less cars on the Ohio Turnpike in 1958 com-pared with the previous year. Also more money was taken in and more miles traveled.

Those conclusions come from the Turnpike Commission's re-leased today.

There were 9,213,575 passenger cars using the big toll road in 1958—a decrease of 130,194. But there were 2,012,580 trucks—an in-crease of 92,964 over 1957 usage.

The commission's toll revenue for 1958 was $17,264,675. That amounted to a jump of $883,771.

The average passenger car driver traveled 81.4 miles per trip and paid $1.22 in tolls during 1958. A year ago it was 80.4 miles and $1.16.

The truckers traveled 73.5 miles and paid $3.01 for the average trip in 1958, while a year ago it was 77.4 miles and $2.89.

Last month 740,378 vehicles — cars and trucks — were turnpike customers. It amounted to a drop of almost 40,000 vehicles from De-cember 1957, apparently because of the severe weather in the final month of 1958.

Auditor Asks Legal Rule on Salary Hikes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state auditor wants Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy's opinion on the status of pay raises for Gov. Di-Salle's new Cabinet.

James A. Rhodes wants to know whether he can legally pay the higher salaries or have to wait 90 days.

The question arose because the Ohio House took only one vote on a change in the Cabinet pay raise bill, an emergency measure en-acted last week.

Emergency legislation requires a double vote in both House and Senate to become effective at once. Regular legislation requires only one vote in each house but is effective only after 90 days.

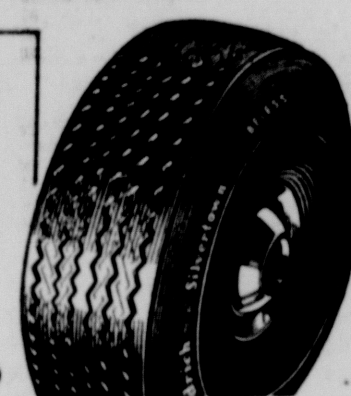

Republican Rhodes approved payment of the higher salaries for the two and one half day pay period between inauguration and Wednesday but said he hoped Mc-Elroy will render his opinion be-fore the Jan. 31 payday.

Ohio statute forbids a change in salary for an official during his term in office. DiSalle said pre-viously he thought the pay raise act was in order and that his ap-pointees would not have to resign and then be reappointed to get the new pay.

TV Money Shows over the Hill

In June, 1955, there premiered on a national television network a new type of quiz show, "The $64,000 Question," which captured the imagination and fancy of the public. Almost immediately it zoomed to the top of the popularity charts and stayed there for almost three years.

The personalities on the program became household names. There were Hal March, the personable master of ceremonies; Gino Prado, the tiny cobbler who was an expert on opera; Joyce Brothers, a living encyclopedia on boxing; little Gloria Lockerman, who awakened interest in spelling, and others.

Every Tuesday night — later, Sunday night—millions of viewers garnered more obscure information than they could ferret out in a lifetime of dull study. There was the added fillip of seeing ordinary citizens with total recall becoming wealthy overnight. And those who flunked rode off the stage in new Cadillacs.

The public became imbued with a whole

One Tantrum too Many

Opera Star Maria Callas has finally worn out her welcome at the Metropolitan Opera. Long known as the temperamental terror of the opera world, Miss Callas had demanded that a last minute change in repertoire be made. She contended the Metropolitan management was switching her from light to heavy roles and back again too fast for her throat to adjust.

General Manager Rudolf Bing, a tough-minded ex-Austrian, praised Miss Callas' artistry, but made it plain that "the Metropolitan is nevertheless also grateful that the association is ended."

Now Maria has been thrown out of about

A Rare, Inspiring Example

By Hal Boyle

"It is not a matter for the state," murmured Frank Chionchio. "It is for God to decide."

The question at issue was what was to be done with Jean Iavarone, accused of kidnapping the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chionchio 2 1/2 hours after her birth in a Brooklyn hospital.

To the consternation of officials neither young lawyer Chionchio nor his wife wanted to press charges against wretched Mrs. Iavarone, mother of eight children herself, after a tip to police led to the discovery of their daughter in her home, not far from Brooklyn police headquarters.

The young couple who had borne themselves with a dignity beyond hysteria during their long ordeal, were not interested in punishing the kidnaper. They were only happy and grateful they had their baby back, alive and well.

This attitude was incomprehensible to the forces of the law, who had thrown from 500 to 700 men into a ten-day-and-night,

Spiritual Hormone Is Needed

By George Sokolsky

No President has had a better opportunity to serve unhampered, to follow his conscience, to provide for his people uncompromisingly than Dwight D. Eisenhower. The Constitution forbids him to run again in 1960 and therefore he can have no personal ambition in the matter. He need not bow to any man for a vote in the convention, for his name will not be presented. He can follow his own course without regard to any selfish concern for the future. A President without a political future has a tremendous political advantage.

Also, every man who has recovered from a killing illness comes to realize that he is living on borrowed time and that his life having been spared, he owes much to God and less to himself. This came to me as I read Eisenhower's 1959 State of the Union message, which was no heart-searing, soul-stirring document, but seemed like an essay that had been put together by not too very skillful hands. It was not applauded too vociferously when spoken, not because most of the Congress is Democratic, but because these men also talk for a living and have some experience with the forensic art. There was little to applaud.

One does not expect every President to possess the oratorical abilities of an Edmund Burke or a Daniel Webster, but one does expect the President of more than 170,000,000 people, in a crisis, to say something sharply and spiritually stimulating. President Eisenhower spoke of thrift in an era of profligacy; he spoke of thrift to a Congress which is planning to accelerate new set of entertainment values, and TV producers, recognizing a trend, began filling the air with bigger and richer giveaway shows. One youngster won $100,000 for singing a popular song, another won more than $200,000 for his knowledge of the stock market. A gal named Elfrieda Nardoff cleaned up more than $200,000.

Gradually, though, the public became disenchanted with cash. Later, when it was charged that some of the video scholars had been given answers in advance — and one of the quiz producers was arrested — it occasioned some surprise, but few tears. The quizzes had run their course.

The other day "The $64,000 Question," the program that really started it all, disappeared from the air waves with hardly any fanfare. Today one has to do considerable dial twisting to find a night-time show whose main attraction is money.

Courtin' Main

Some folks keep their car nice and clean. It keeps them the same way.

street-by-street search for the stolen infant.

To Chionchio, 28, a lawyer for the Port of New York Authority, Mrs. Iavarone, 43, was "a poor, sick woman" unable to comprehend the enormity of the crime or the suffering it had caused.

Only after considerable pressure by legal officials, during which it was pointed out that he himself could be held as a material witness in the case, did he reluctantly sign a complaint against Mrs. Iavarone.

Even then, as he left the conference, the young father murmured stubbornly: "It is not a matter for the state. It is for God to decide."

To many, the attitude of Mr. and Mrs. Chionchio must seem incredibly naive. The instinct for revenge and retribution is overwhelmingly strong in most of us, and when someone hurts us we want to hurt them back just as soon as we are able to.

We pay lip service to the ideals of forgiveness, turning the other cheek, and doing unto one another as we would have them do unto us. But in our daily life we often don't live up to these ideals. We turn to the older law of fang and claw.

It is inconceivable, certainly for most of us, to think that Mrs. Iavarone, if proved both sane and guilty, should go unpunished by the laws of man.

But it is unimportant whether Mr. and Mrs. Chionchio are right or wrong. In an angry world, surely sicker and just as confused in many ways as the woman who stole their baby, their Christian charity under stress stands as a bright beacon of true faith.

Instead of retaliation, they have responded to this blow against their happiness and family security with forgiveness, a reach for understanding, and a desire that a higher judge decide the case.

It is an example of humanity at its best, as rare as it is inspiring.

so serious a matter? Were the invitations to the various fiestas arranged for the Armenian vendor of Skoda arms issued before he arrived or spontaneously after he got here? If the latter, it was a feat of organization and were there an honest Congressional committee, it would inquire who sat at the central desk to do the telephoning and the mobilizing.

The American people do not need a trickiness like the Mikoyan well-staged visit in which those who have glass beads to sell are so interested, but rather a full statement on what the inflation is doing to our form of government, what the frightening cartelization of American industry means, a cartelization that is manipulated by raids from abroad as well as from Wall Street, by taking apart the well-established and breaking solid firms as one breaks up pieces of taffy. The President might have spoken of that if he understands the process and called attention to the menace to our people of the elimination of equality of opportunity.

The President's speech reminded me of Calvin Coolidge's remarks on a preacher's sermon. Someone asked Coolidge what the preacher talked about.

Coolidge replied that he spoke on sin.

His listener pressed him for a lengthier statement.

Get Medical Facts on Racers

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Are you a horse race fan? Although I am not, I realize that many persons are.

So I thought it might be interesting to take a look at this horse-racing business from a medical man's point of view.

A recent issue of the Physician's Bulletin cited two medical studies which produced a lot of valuable information about a horse's potential.

One study, conducted in Australia, shows pretty clearly that an electrocardiogram is a very useful guide to a horse's racing ability.

There appears to be a definite relationship between the electrocardiogram readings and a horse's ability to win races.

However, I don't suggest that you sneak out to the track early in the morning with an electrocardiograph apparatus and begin checking horses.

The instrument apparently has little value in determining what a horse will do in any particular race. Rather, it gives the horse's overall ability. And to the racing fan, that's not always enough.

Cuba has the largest Chinese population in Latin America. Rosendo Canto, 33, Cuba's ambassador to the Republic of China, is the youngest ambassador in Taipei.

The American people do not need a trickiness like the Mikoyan well-staged visit in which those who have glass beads to sell are so interested, but rather a full statement on what the inflation is doing to our form of government, what the frightening cartelization of American industry means, a cartelization that is manipulated by raids from abroad as well as from Wall Street, by taking apart the well-established and breaking solid firms as one breaks up pieces of taffy. The World Today

By James Marlow

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Fidel Castro, in power in Cuba only 16 days, is already in a shouting match with the United States although his revolutionary government was given speedy diplomatic recognition by this country.

Castro's long fight against the dictatorship of Fulgencio Batista reached its climax Jan. 1 when Batista fled. Castro's announced purpose in overthrowing Batista was to restore democracy to Cuba.

What he has actually imposed — at least temporarily — is another dictatorship. His government has dismissed Congress and announced it will rule by decree for 18 months, after which elections can be held.

No observer in Washington can say whether such delay is justified or not.

But Castro's tactics since his victory — in approving mass execution by firing squads of Batista followers and in his violent attacks on the United States — raise questions.

Was his long fight against Batista simply that of a patriotic but emotional man who lacked the vision to plan long-range for orderly government? Or was he practical enough to do such planning?

His angry outbursts against the United States seemed prompted by American criticism of the mass executions.

He repeated charges — quickly denied by the State Department — that the United States provided arms and aid to Batista's defeated forces.

But Castro went further than merely attacking American policy. He said: "We are more democratic than President Eisenhower. We are more democratic than John Foster Dulles. There is more liberty here than in the United States."

Castro's fatigue, his anger at criticism, or just poor judgment may have been the root of these bitter attacks.

If the State Department seems — in the light of Castro's present performance — to have been hasty in granting him recognition, at least this country had been already made self-conscious about its dealings with Latin American dictators.

One of the reasons given last spring for the stoning and spitting inflicted on Vice President Richard M. Nixon during his Latin American tour was the complaint this country had played much too cozy with Latin American dictators.

In August President Eisenhower sent his brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University, to Latin America to look over the situation and report on how this country could improve its relations.

Dr. Eisenhower took months preparing that report. He sent it to the President, Dec. 27, just a few days before Castro threw out Batista.

Among other things Dr. Eisenhower urged a stiffer policy toward Latin American dictators by suggesting that while the United States should embrace democratic regimes it should give dictators only "a formal handshake."

On Jan. 7, six days after Batista fled, the United States gave Castro's provisional government recognition.

This fast action may come under questioning in Congress — particularly if relations with Castro grow worse — since it was taken before there was full time to see how the Castro wind blew.

Ex-Mental Patient Kills His Parents

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A young man discharged from a mental hospital 2½ months ago told police he shot and killed his parents "because they made me practice the accordion 8 or 10 hours a day."

Slight, sandy-haired David K. Sandahl, 20, was booked on two counts of suspicion of murder Thursday night.

Sheriff's Capt. Harold Guerin said Sandahl admitted shooting his parents with a .22 revolver. He was discharged Nov. 1 from DeWitt State Hospital, a mental institution. He had entered the hospital in May, a month after the family arrived from Pontiac, Mich.

The father, Ewald L. Sandahl, 52, was a production engineer employed at the Aero-Jet rocket plant and had worked on the atomic bomb at Oak Ridge, Tenn. His wife, Elizabeth Mae, was 55.

A traffic accident in which the son was involved led to discovery of the bodies Wednesday. Sandahl fled on foot after running his father's car into a ditch.

The highway patrol traced the car to the Sandahl residence, about 18 miles from Sacramento. The small frame cottage was locked but patrolmen saw the body of the father in the living room. They forced their way inside and found the body of Mrs. Sandahl in a bedroom. Each had been shot in the head.

A motorist, William Mabry, who lives near the Sandahl residence, heard a police radio report. Minutes later Mabry noticed David hitchhiking, gave the youth a lift and persuaded him to let him call police.

Asked why he killed, he replied "I just couldn't take any more from them. My father made me practice the accordion 8 or 10 hours a day."

"I couldn't get out of the house, go out with girls, play ball or anything else."

First job in show business that Flo Ziegfeld, of "Follies" fame, found was as a kid sharpshooter with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show.

U.S. Labor Picture Darkens With Harvester Talk Hitch

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hopes for an end to the nation's largest strike, involving 37,000 International Harvester Co. workers, faded today when negotiators recommended rejection of a proposed new contract.

The labor picture was darkened further by a forecast of widespread walkouts in the oil industry.

The Harvester UAW negotiating group recommended that a council representing rank and file members reject settlement terms.

Previously the negotiators had decided to pass the three year agreement on to the council without recommendation.

The walkout involved the big farm implement firm's 25 factories, transfer points and depots.

On the debit side of the labor news, O. A. Knight, president of the Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers, with a membership of 105,000 in the oil industry, said widespread strikes are likely to develop early next week.

Knight's prediction came as federal mediators in Kansas City reported no progress in contract talks between the Sinclair Oil Co. and the union representing 9,500 of its workers.

Strike notices which expire at midnight Saturday have been filed with Sinclair and most of the 600 individual oil plants with which the union has contracts.

The Sinclair contract is the only one negotiated on a nationwide basis in the oil industry by the union but it usually sets the pattern for other contracts on a plant-by-plant basis. The union has asked for a wage hike of 25

Hope for Cut In U.S. Taxes Burning Bright

Ike Revives Pleasant Thought, Linking It To Stable Prices

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Hope for lower taxes burns bright today—even though all signs point to higher taxes instead.

President Eisenhower has revived the hope and tied it with his fight to keep the dollar from deteriorating further in purchasing power.

He says that if prices can be held fairly stable, the government will have a better chance of balancing its budget. That is, if the government doesn't have to spend more for the goods and services it needs, its income from tax collections will have a chance to equal its outgo. On that happy day reforms in the tax structure would be possible.

Taxes and inflation are linked in more ways than this.

To most of us inflation simply means that our income doesn't buy as much as it once did. To the monetary expert inflation means that the supply of money and credit is expanded beyond the demand for goods.

The Treasury has just sold 2½ billion dollars worth of short term notes, mostly to the banks. Since these are regarded as the nearest approach to greenbacks themselves, the supply of money available to the economy is increased by that amount.

The President would like to ward off a new spurt of inflation. But the Treasury has to keep coming to the money market to raise new funds to meet the deficit that government spending is running up.

Money managers themselves have this constantly increasing supply of funds to do battle with in their attempts to hold down inflationary pressures.

If the fight can be won, what tax relief is planned?

The President says he has the Treasury Department working on this now.

The reforms under consideration at this time seem to apply mostly to business. Their effects could be felt all the way down to the consumer.

One thing proposed is a change in the excise taxes. These are a form of sales tax now levied on a few things. One proposal is to cut the rates on such taxes but to make up the lost revenue by adding a number of other goods to the tax list.

Business still has hopes that the 52 per cent levy on corporate profits will be lowered to 50 per cent.

Depreciation allowances also are close to the hearts of businessmen.

A 15-foot high cast iron gate taken from the entrance to a Paris subway station is one of the exhibits at New York's Museum of Modern Art. It was made about 1900 and is considered a work of art.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Miller, and their six other children escaped from the home in time, but the father was badly burned and hospitalized.

Lake Erie Water Level Is Foot Below 1957

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The water level of Lake Erie was one foot lower in December 1958 than on the same date a year ago, the Ohio Department of Natural Resources reported today. John Hyland, assistant chief of the Division of Shore Erosion, said this is only 18 inches above the all-time December low of 1934. The low level is due to an accumulated deficit of rainfall over the Great Lakes Watershed, U.S. Engineers say.

Strike notices which expire at midnight Saturday have been filed with Sinclair and most of the 600 individual oil plants with which the union has contracts.

The Sinclair contract is the only one negotiated on a nationwide basis in the oil industry by the union but it usually sets the pattern for other contracts on a plant-by-plant basis. The union has asked for a wage hike of 25 cents an hour or 21 cents an hour plus fringe benefits. Sinclair has not offered a wage increase. The average wage now is $2.71 an hour.

In other labor disputes, the nation's longest strike involves 13,000 employees in seven plants of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. Federal mediators are meeting in Philadelphia with representatives of the company and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union in efforts to end the strike, which started last Oct. 6.

Seniority rights and incentive pay are believed to be the major issues in dispute. Wages are not involved.

In Los Angeles, 1,000 supermarkets have been closed since Jan. 1 by a strike-lockout. The strike is by the Retail Clerks Union and the lockout by the Food Employers Council, representing the store operators, in retaliation.

The strike-lockout has idled 16,000 persons and has changed the shopping habits of housewives. They do their marketing at 4,500 grocery stores not affected by the walkout.

The clerks have demanded a wage benefit package totaling $2.5 cents hourly spread over a five-year contract. The employers offered a 30-cent package offer. The clerks were paid $2.30 hourly under the old contract.

In the Harvester settlement, a company spokesman said the strike cost the union about $2, 600,000 in wages. A union spokesman estimated the UAW strike fund has paid about one million dollars weekly in strike benefits.

The new contract calls for annual pay hikes of 6 cents an hour or 2 1/2 per cent, whichever is greater. Wages under the old contract averaged $2.55.

The Rev. Huber Speaker For Women of St. Philip's

The problems of Episcopal theological seminaries were discussed in a talk by the Rev. William G. Huber at a meeting of the Women of St. Philip's Church Thursday evening. He pointed out that the seminaries do not find it easy to obtain and keep topflight scholars and teachers on their faculties since state universities and private schools present such attractive salaries and peripheral benefits.

The Protestant Episcopal Church has eleven seminaries, several of which are located on the East coast, and two which are located in the Middle West, Bexley Hall in Gambier, O., and Seabury Western in Evanston, Ill. He said that they vary in size and have their ups and downs in enrollment.

At present, however, the shortage of clergy is acute, and the number of candidates for Holy Orders is small in comparison to the demand. He mentioned that there are numerous societies which help theological students financially during their three years of seminary, so that there is very little that need stand in the way of a young man's preparing for the ministry if he really desires to do so and is able to pass the tests to qualify for postulancy.

Following the talk by the Rev. Huber, Mrs. Arthur K. Johnson conducted a business meeting, first introducing Mrs. Robert Smith who conducted the devotions. Minutes were read by Mrs. Howard B. Moore, secretary, and the treasurer's report by Mrs. C. E. Anderson.

Reports were given on Christmas projects with Mrs. Henry Miga speaking about the gifts taken to the Pickaway County Infirmary, and Mrs. William G. Huber reporting on the two Christmas baskets given to needy families. Plans were made for changing the programs of the next two meetings due to Ash Wednesday services.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Andrew Thomas and Mrs. N. T. Weldon.

Mrs. Towers Hostess for Circle No. 5

Mrs. O. J. Towers, 321 E. Union St., was hostess to Circle No. 5 of the First Methodist Church when it met Wednesday evening.

There were 18 members and two guests, Mrs. Laura Heffner and Mrs. Baker present.

Miss Billie Bowers presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Arnold Moats was in charge of devotions using St. Matthew's 5:13-15 as the scripture lesson. She read a story on "Joy" and closed her devotions with prayer.

Miss Carrie Johnson was in charge of the program. The theme was "Rekindling the Gifts and Revitalizing Old Religion." The program was in relation to the foreign study of the Middle East.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Ralph Dunkel, Mrs. Fred Duncan and Mrs. Edwin Shanton.

Saturday Meeting

The Loving Boosters Class of the First EUB Church will meet in the service center at 2 p. m. Saturday with Mrs. Montford Kirkwood Jr. and Mrs. Elliott Mason in charge.

New Members Welcomed By Roundtown Garden Club

Mrs. Doris Roof and Mrs. Phyllis Struckman were welcomed as new members of the Roundtown Garden Club when it met recently at the home of Mrs. John Beck, Watt St.

Mrs. Wesley Edstrom Jr. presided over the business meeting with ten members answering roll call with the name of an evergreen shrub growing in their yard. A letter was read from the Circleville Girl Scouts thanking the club for the two evergreens presented last fall to the Girl Scout Camp Misca.

Mrs. John Beck reported on the Christmas meeting of the Columbus District of Garden Clubs which was held in December at the Jai Lai in Columbus. The next district meeting will be in May at the Lincoln Lodge, Columbus.

Mrs. Struckman and Mrs. Beck were appointed as delegates to the Monday Club Sesquicentennial meeting. Mrs. William Curtiss will be the club's representative to the Pickaway County Traffic Safety committee.

Mrs. Edstrom read a letter and the schedule concerning the third annual Central Ohio Flower and Home Show which will be held in the Buckeye Building at the State Fairgrounds, February 28-March 8. The theme this year will be "Springtime in Ohio."

Mrs. Al Deckard, Mrs. Robert

Younkin, Mrs. Edstrom and Mrs. Frances Wolfe were named to make-up a panel for the February meeting of the club which will be held in the home of Mrs. Deckard, Stella Ave. Topic for discussion will be "Flower Arranging."

It was decided to have a workshop at 8 p. m. Monday, January 26, at the home of Mrs. Horace Luton, Route 1. The project for the evening will be making mats out of cane poles.

Mrs. James Moffit was the guest speaker for the evening using as her subject "Iris and Lilies." She told the history of the Iris family and the details of their growing. There are three varieties of the Iris; the early ones which bloom in April; the intermediates which bloom in May and the Japanese Iris which bloom in July.

All kinds need sunny spots with good drainage and should always be planted with the rhizome half out of the soil. Planting time is in July and August and every few years the clumps should be divided. Public enemy No. 1 of all Iris is the bore. It can be controlled if a spray, consisting of two heaping tablespoons of weatherable DDT and a gallon of water, is used in early spring.

Mrs. Moffit then gave a short history of the Lily family which dates back hundreds of years. It has been just recently that these flowers have reached the popularity they now hold. They are one of the easiest flowers to grow and thrive on neglect.

Lilies are of varied colors and a variety of shapes in the bloom, all of which can take the full summer sun. They should be planted in either early spring or fall.

Following her program, Mrs. Moffit judged the arrangements brought by the members which carried the theme, "Wintery Blast." Driftwood, bark or rocks were used in the arrangements. Mrs. Beck was awarded first; Mrs. Deckard, second and third was given to Mrs. Luton.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. George Bowers Jr. was a guest for the evening.

Modern Parable Devotions for WSCS Circle

Circle No. 1 of First Methodist Church met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. O. Schweizer, with sixteen members present.

Mrs. N. E. Reichelderfer led devotions, which included a modern parable, "The Rug Weaver," symbolic of the pattern we follow in life. Mrs. Charles DeNeef, program chairman, opened with a reading by Mrs. William A. Cox of an article, "Bridges," taken from the current issue of the Methodist Woman. Discussion of the world situation followed.

Mrs. A. P. Powell, chairman, conducted the business session. She presented Mrs. Ervin Leist, who is to correspond with the Lebanese child adopted by the Woman's Society of Christian Service. A lovely brochure picturing the work of the Christian Children's Fund, and thanking the women of First Methodist Church was shown. Mrs. Leist will receive pictures and full information about the child in the near future.

Cherry pies were solicited for the George Washington Dinner to be held at the church on Wednesday, February 18. Announcement was made of the study course on "The Middle East" being conducted by Mrs. Paul Wachs in the church annex each Thursday afternoon in January from 1:30 to 3 p. m.

Mrs. Schweizer was assisted in serving by Mrs. Carl Jenkins, Mrs. George Bach, Mrs. Clarence Thorne and Mrs. Fred Wiggins. The next meeting of Circle No. 1 will be held at the home of Mrs. George Grubb on February 11.

Little Chapel of Lancaster Scene for Jan. 3rd Wedding

The Little Chapel of First Methodist Church, Lancaster, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Vera E. Bowman and Ned L. Kraft on Saturday, January 3rd. The Rev. George W. Herd, D.D. officiated for the double ring ceremony at 2:30 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Milton H. Bowman, Lancaster and the late Mr. Bowman. Mr. Kraft is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Turney Kraft, Route 4, Circleville.

Mrs. Roger Roof, South Bloomfield, sister of the bridegroom, was the organist.

Dana Joy Bowman, niece of the bride, lighted the candles on the altar preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Donald R. Bowman, the bride wore a street length dress of white satin and brocade styled with a sweetheart neckline, fitted waistline and full gored skirt. Her hat of white satin was trimmed with small sequins and veil.

She carried a white Bible on which was arranged a purple orchid surrounded by white roses and net. She also carried a white hand embroidered eyelet handkerchief which had been sent her mother from Belgium by her father during World War I. Her only jewelry, a single strand of cultured pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of Honor for the bride was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald R. Bowman. Her dress, of pale blue satin and brocade was styled identical to that of the bride. She carried a colonial bouquet arranged of pink rose buds, carnations and blue net. She wore a hat of matching blue made of velvet flowers.

Paul D. Kraft, Amanda, served his brother as best man.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the ceremony for the families of the bride and groom. Hostesses were Mrs. Ovid Timmons of Groveport, sister of the groom and Mrs. Paul D. Kraft.

Mrs. Bowman wore a royal blue wool dress trimmed in white and Mrs. Kraft chose a blue and white print silk dress. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations.

The new Mrs. Kraft is employed at the Hocking Valley National Bank, Lancaster and Mr. Kraft is engaged in farming. They have established their home in Amanda.

The bride and her parents formerly resided in Pickaway County and Circleville.

Delegates Chosen for Gamma Meeting

Mrs. Carl Ruhl and Miss Marilyn Francis were named delegates to Gamma Providence Meeting when Beta Kappa Chapter of Sigma Phi Gamma Sorority met in the home of Mrs. William Snyder, E. Main St., Wednesday evening.

The Providence Meeting will be held February 28-March 1 at Waverly, O. Miss Barbara Caskey was named alternate.

Mrs. Jerald Easter, vice-president, presided over the business meeting. There were ten members present.

New projects and ideas were discussed at this time. Plans were made for Guest Night to be held at the next meeting of February 28. Mrs. Robert Moon, McGraw Ave., will be hostess with Mrs. Blen Stevenson assisting.

Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. Moon and Miss Agnes Jester were delegates for the Monday Club's sesquicentennial meeting.

Wolfe Speaker For Art League

Mrs. Kenneth Luna, N. Court St., will be hostess to the Circleville Art League at 8 p. m. Monday. Roy (Mac) Wolfe will be the guest speaker. He will demonstrate the silk screen process.

Current Projects Discussed By Calvary Women's Group

The Woman's Society of World Service of Calvary EUB Church met in the home of Mrs. Ray Anderson, E. Mound St., with 12 members and guest, Mrs. Grace Goff, present. Mrs. William Cline was the assisting hostess.

Mrs. Harry Hosler, vice-president, opened the meeting with prayer. It was announced the toys and clothing collected at the Christmas meeting were delivered to the Lowery Lane Mission. A thank-you letter was received from Mrs. Marion DeLong.

Mrs. Dale DeLong reported the Youth Fellowship had sent money to China for the Rev. Charles Ashley's Christmas party. The society voted to send $5 for the Rev. Ashley to purchase 50 pounds of rice for the Chinese people for their New Years which will be held on February 10th.

February 1 is World Service Day. The society plans to have a guest speaker. The offering will be given for evangelistic equipment; mobile units for mass medium in radio and television; to assist in building of churches, missions and schools and mobile medical units.

Mrs. DeLong also read letters from a girl in Nigeria and Abram Soboleh, who is now in Africa teaching among his people.

Members were reminded to save their Lincoln pennies during February and bring them to the March meeting. World Day of Prayer is to be held February 13. The society is saving coupons which will be used to obtain useful items for the church kitchen.

Get-well cards were signed to be sent to Mrs. Marion DeLong and Mrs. Ella Carothers.

Mrs. Ida Warner was in charge of the program. Her topic was on the Middle East. The scripture lesson, Proverbs 3:13-18, was given by Mrs. H. Dale Rough.

Mrs. Warner described the pilgrimage throughout the Middle East. She told of the farming, schools, villages, and the crowded conditions of the different countries there.

The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Rough. She told of the children's study on the Middle East and where their offerings will go.

A contest was presented during the social hour by Mrs. Harry Betz and won by Mrs. Willis Flowers. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

MISS BARBARA ROSE CULP

Miss Culp, Mr. Peoples Plan Early Summer Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Culp, 475 N. Court St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Rose, to Mr. Leo A. Peoples, son of Mr. Leo A. Peoples of Columbus, Ohio, and the late Mrs. Lena Peoples.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the New York School of Modeling and is a junior in the College of Home Economics at Florida Southern College. She is a member of Sigma Rho Epsilon Sorority. Mr. Peoples is a graduate of the College of Engineering of Ohio State University and a member of Phi Mu Delta Fraternity. He served two years with the United States Navy and still retains his commission as a lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Reserve. Mr. Peoples is associated with the Goodyear Atomic Corporation, Portsmouth, Ohio. The wedding will be an event of early summer.

The Rev. Huber Speaker For Women of St. Philip's

The problems of Episcopal theological seminaries were discussed in a talk by the Rev. William G. Huber at a meeting of the Women of St. Philip's Church Thursday evening. He pointed out that the seminaries do not find it easy to obtain and keep topflight scholars and teachers on their faculties since state universities and private schools present such attractive salaries and peripheral benefits.

The Protestant Episcopal Church has eleven seminaries, several of which are located on the East coast, and two which are located in the Middle West, Bexley Hall in Gambier, O., and Seabury Western in Evanston, Ill. He said that they vary in size and have their ups and downs in enrollment.

At present, however, the shortage of clergy is acute, and the number of candidates for Holy Orders is small in comparison to the demand. He mentioned that there are numerous societies which help theological students financially during their three years of seminary, so that there is very little that need stand in the way of a young man's preparing for the ministry if he really desires to do so and is able to pass the tests to qualify for postulancy.

Following the talk by the Rev. Huber, Mrs. Arthur K. Johnson conducted a business meeting, first introducing Mrs. Robert Smith who conducted the devotions. Minutes were read by Mrs. Howard B. Moore, secretary, and the treasurer's report by Mrs. C. E. Anderson.

Reports were given on Christmas projects with Mrs. Henry Miga speaking about the gifts taken to the Pickaway County Infirmary, and Mrs. William G. Huber reporting on the two Christmas baskets given to needy families. Plans were made for changing the programs of the next two meetings due to Ash Wednesday services.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Andrew Thomas and Mrs. N. T. Weldon.

Mrs. Towers Hostess for Circle No. 5

Mrs. O. J. Towers, 321 E. Union St., was hostess to Circle No. 5 of the First Methodist Church when it met Wednesday evening.

There were 18 members and two guests, Mrs. Laura Heffner and Mrs. Baker present.

Miss Billie Bowers presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Arnold Moats was in charge of devotions using St. Matthew's 5:13-15 as the scripture lesson. She read a story on "Joy" and closed her devotions with prayer.

Miss Carrie Johnson was in charge of the program. The theme was "Rekindling the Gifts and Revitalizing Old Religion." The program was in relation to the foreign study of the Middle East.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Ralph Dunkel, Mrs. Fred Duncan and Mrs. Edwin Shanton.

Saturday Meeting

The Loving Boosters Class of the First EUB Church will meet in the service center at 2 p. m. Saturday with Mrs. Montford Kirkwood Jr. and Mrs. Elliott Mason in charge.

New Members Welcomed By Roundtown Garden Club

Mrs. Doris Roof and Mrs. Phyllis Struckman were welcomed as new members of the Roundtown Garden Club when it met recently at the home of Mrs. John Beck, Watt St.

Mrs. Wesley Edstrom Jr. presided over the business meeting with ten members answering roll call with the name of an evergreen shrub growing in their yard. A letter was read from the Circleville Girl Scouts thanking the club for the two evergreens presented last fall to the Girl Scout Camp Misca.

Mrs. John Beck reported on the Christmas meeting of the Columbus District of Garden Clubs which was held in December at the Jai Lai in Columbus. The next district meeting will be in May at the Lincoln Lodge, Columbus.

Mrs. Struckman and Mrs. Beck were appointed as delegates to the Monday Club Sesquicentennial meeting. Mrs. William Curtiss will be the club's representative to the Pickaway County Traffic Safety committee.

Mrs. Edstrom read a letter and the schedule concerning the third annual Central Ohio Flower and Home Show which will be held in the Buckeye Building at the State Fairgrounds, February 28-March 8. The theme this year will be "Springtime in Ohio."

Mrs. Al Deckard, Mrs. Robert

Younkin, Mrs. Edstrom and Mrs. Frances Wolfe were named to make-up a panel for the February meeting of the club which will be held in the home of Mrs. Deckard, Stella Ave. Topic for discussion will be "Flower Arranging."

It was decided to have a workshop at 8 p. m. Monday, January 26, at the home of Mrs. Horace Luton, Route 1. The project for the evening will be making mats out of cane poles.

Mrs. James Moffit was the guest speaker for the evening using as her subject "Iris and Lilies." She told the history of the Iris family and the details of their growing. Indiana Hopes To Gain Lead In Big Ten

Win over Dangerous Iowa Hawkeyes Needed On Saturday Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Indiana has a chance to break the log jam and take the undisputed Big Ten basketball lead in a game Saturday night against the dangerous Iowa Hawkeyes.

The defending champion Hoosiers are locked with Illinois and Michigan at 3-1 in the race. Illinois and Michigan, as well as Michigan State and Wisconsin, have Saturday respite.

Purdue (1-2) is at Minnesota (1-1) for an afternoon nationally televised contest and Northwestern (2-1) is at Ohio State (0-2) at night to round out the hobbled schedule.

Iowa has a 1-2 record in three starts against the conference's top-fight clubs. The Hawkeyes were edged 80-77 by Northwestern, crushed Michigan State 80-68 and beaten by Illinois 103-97.

Indiana handed Minnesota its first Big Ten loss 63-59 Monday. The Gophers should prove troublesome on their home floor against Purdue. The Boilermakers were one of the pre-season favorites, but so far have beaten only hapless Wisconsin after losing to Indiana 77-69 and Michigan 82-75.

At Ohio State, Northwestern will face the Big Ten's leading scorer, Larry Huston. He has a 25.5 mark and has hit 15 free throws in a row.

The winless stayed winless on the Ohio college basketball front Thursday night.

Kenyon, which hadn't won a game in five straight starts, dropped another one as Capital romped over the Lords, 69-43. Kenyon could only make 16 of 70 shots from the field while Capital sunk 24 of 52.

Otterbein was handed its ninth straight setback as Oberlin coasted to a 75-59 victory paced by Ron Jacobs' 24 points.

Both games were Ohio Conference affairs.

The only other battles were inter-state contests: Kentucky State whipped Central State, 94-71, in a game marred by 66 personal fouls—35 against the Kentuckians and 31 against the Ohioans.

Findlay, ahead by only two points at intermission, used a pressing defense in the second half to defeat Wheeling of West Virginia 59-39.

Rookie Prospects for '59

Pirate Danny Eyes McDaniel, Daniels

NEW YORK (AP)—Hunch players who dote on name parlay might keep an eye on the Pittsburgh Pirates' training camp this spring where rookies Jimmy McDaniel and Bennie Daniels will be trying to impress Manager Danny Murtaugh.

McDaniel is an outfielder who, according to Pacific Coast League experts, is ready for major league ball. And there isn't an observer in the International League who doesn't believe Daniels is a cinch to make the Pirates' pitching staff in 1959.

McDaniel and Daniels are not the only freshmen on the Bucs' roster, of course. There will be 15 new faces in camp, but those two stand the best chance to make it, along with the perennial rookie, Rocky Nelson, who will be getting his eighth big league trial.

McDaniel led the Pacific Coast League with 37 home runs and tied for the lead with 100 runs batted in on a .293 batting average.

The 6-2, 196 pounder, who hails from Marshall, Mo., but now makes his home in Coachella, Calif., is exceptionally fast despite his size, is graceful in the field and can throw with the best of them. That's the report from the coast.

Daniels, 28, enjoyed a spectacular season with Columbus, where he won 14 games while losing six and turned in a 2.31 earned run percentage. A native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., he has improved his control, which hampered him in bid for a berth with the Pirates last spring. In 160 innings, he struck out 112 and walked only 56.

Alvin Jackson, a 23-year-old lefthander from Lincoln of the Western League, brings up a fine 18-9 record and 2.07 ERA. Salt Lake City sends up four hopeulists in Fred Green 10-8, Don Williams 8-5, George Perez 7-4 and Jim Hardison 7-7. Hugh Pepper, a righthander, was 9-14 with Columbus and Rochester, and Don Rowe, a lefthander, was 1-5 at Columbus.

Joe Christopher, 23, outfielder, brings a .327 batting average from Salt Lake City. Howard Goss, another outfielder, batted .239 at Columbus.

NEXT—New York Yankees.

Title Defense Rule Relaxed By Ring Group

NEW YORK (AP)—Big money-making champions don't have to worry any more about the six months title defense rule. The National Boxing Assn. today just about gave the boot to the often disregarded regulation.

The NBA's executive committee said heavy taxation had made it virtually impossible for the major attractions like middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson and heavyweight king Floyd Patterson to hold strictly to the code.

It made the point at a Thursday meeting in which it accepted assurances from both Robinson and Patterson that they intended to defend their crown this year.

Robinson said he would by May or June (probably against Carmen Basilio) and Patterson's manager, Gus D'Amato, said Floyd would defend against a yet unnamed opponent "within a reasonable time."

At the same time the committee warned bantamweight champion Alphonse Halimi to face loss of the title. He hasn't had a title fight since Nov. 6, 1957.

Robinson's last title fight was last March 25, when he regained the crown from Basilio. Patterson isn't due for a title defense under the outmoded rule until Feb. 18. He stopped Texan Roy Harris in Los Angeles Aug. 18.

Atkinson Tipped For Track Post

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Atkinson, with 21 years of riding and 3,795 winners behind him, is considering an offer to become a racing official if a back ailment forces him to give up the career he has plied for half of his 42 years.

The Canadian-born jockey, rated one of the best in his trade, had a date today with Dr. Alexander Kaye, chief physician for the Jockeys' Guild.

Upon the doctor's examination rests Atkinson's decision whether he'll return to the saddle or seriously consider an offer to become a racing official in New York. The offer was made to Atkinson in Florida recently by Marshall Cassidy, director of racing for the New York Racing Assn.

Nats Press Hard On Knick Cagers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Syracuse Nationals were breathing down the necks of the New York Knickerbockers today in their duel for second place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn.

Coupling their 111-105 decision over Minneapolis with a 95-91 defeat of New York by Philadelphia in Syracuse Thursday night, the Nats reduced the Knicks' second-place margin to two games.

In racking up their fifth straight victory, the Nats built a 15-point early lead, but saw it drop to three with 42 seconds remaining. Thyn Larry Costello and Ralph Schayes rallied the home forces and they won going away.

RO, VFW, Kirks Grab Wins In Local Cage Loop Play

River Oil, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Kirk Furniture rolled to wins in the Circleville Independent cage league last night at the local coliseum.

River Oil, winning its seventh game without a defeat, clipped Dunlaps', 77-52. VFW, taking its sixth title in seven starts, downed Yingling Hybrids, 60-55. Kirk's grabbed a second win of the season by trouncing Ashville, 68-55.

After a close 15-14 first quarter, River Oil jumped to a 39-26 half-time lead and upped this margin in the last two periods. The RO attack featured five men hitting for double figures. Hedric had 19, Bryant 15, Hannah 13, Hummel 12 and Smith 10.

Bob Metzger paced Dunlaps with 16 and James collected nine.

THE VFW-Yingling test was close throughout, with VFW taking advantage of a 21-point third quarter to pull out in front. Yinglings led 28-22 at intermission, but VFW roared back to take a 43-38 margin at the end of the third frame. Both teams scored 17 points in the final chapter.

Eddie Tomlinson was a consistent firer for VFW, netting 24 points. "Babe" Rhoades hit for 12 and Duckie Smith collected 10.

Loy sparked Yinglings with 17 points, assisted by Swinehart with 13 and Bob Goodman with 12.

After a 12-12 first quarter deadlock, Kirks pulled away for a 32-28 advantage at the half. The winners outscored their opponents, 22-12, in the last quarter to post a safe margin.

Kirk led the winners with 22 points, followed by Vincent with 13. Knapp, leading all scoring for the evening, paced Ashville with 27 and Reigel had 16.

Three more games are scheduled next Thursday at the coliseum. The card slates Yinglings vs. River Oil, Kirks vs. VFW and Dunlaps vs. Ashville.

British Champ Accepts Bid From Moore

LONDON (AP)—Jim Wicks, manager of British Heavyweight Champion Henry Cooper, said today he had cabled Archie Moore accepting an unusual guarantee of $150,000. The fight would be in London, probably in June.

(At the Boxers Writers Assn. dinner in New York Thursday night Moore said he would give Cooper $150,000.)

"If Moore guarantees us the 50,000 pounds then the fight is on," Wicks said. "It could then take place in London in June and with this money already in the bank Cooper would not need any purse."

Wicks said he received the offer from the world lightweight champion early this morning.

Wicks said the dollars would make up "forget for the time being, at least," negotiation for a fight with lightweight Champion Floyd Patterson, or possibly one with Ingemar Johansson of Sweden.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Time To End that 'Vacation'

DEAR ABBY: My husband died leaving me with four children. Three months ago my daughter and her husband moved in for a vacation. They push my things aside and bring out their own. My house is beginning to look more like theirs and less like mine every day. I love my daughter, but I can't take much more of this. Her husband bosses my kids around. My privacy is gone and my grocery bill is running wild. I feel I am being used, but how can I get rid of them before I crack up?

USED MOTHER
DEAR USED: Tell your daughter THEIR "vacation" is over and now YOU'D like one. Alone. Either give it to them STRAIGHT or expect to wind up in a jacket by the same name.

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend says we are "going steady." I expected a ring, or a bracelet, but all he says is, "I LOVE YOU." Is this enough to "go steady" on, or should I insist on something I can show my friends?

GOING STEADY
DEAR GOING: Don't "insist" on anything. Your friends will just have to take your word for it.

DEAR ABBY: The widow of a professional man sent out "thank you" notes unsealed, thus saving one cent on each card sent. These "thank you" notes were to friends and neighbors who were thoughtful enough to remember her deceased husband. I think this was a very cheap thing to do. What do you think?

A FRIEND
DEAR FRIEND: It's not for us to judge who should save pennies and how. If the "thank you" note was sincere and prompt, who cares how much it cost to get there?

DEAR ABBY: My daughter, age eleven, has an adorable little girlfriend her own age who keeps asking her to spend the week-end at her house. My child is an only child and I want her to have friends but here is our problem. The girlfriend's parents run around on each other and I'm afraid if I let my child go there the children might be left alone all night. I can't tell my child the real reason I won't let her go, can I? I hate to hurt an innocent child for she is not to blame for what her parents do. What should I do?

DISTURBED
DEAR DISTURBED: When your daughter is invited to her friend's home, simply reverse the invitation and insist that the friend stay with you. No need for any explanations.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "M.A.C."
With your kind of luck I recommend that you wear suspenders, a belt and carry two safety pins. Good luck!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Workless, Illness Soar Relief Bill

The Pickaway County Welfare Department paid a total of $6,869.43 to indigent county residents for poor relief during December. The case load was 171.

This is in comparison with $6,175.83 paid out in November. In December of 1957 a total of $9,159.40 was paid out in poor relief and $5,224.08 was allotted during December of 1956.

A total of $144 was meted out for medical and hospital care, as $6,725.43 was paid out, $2,578.54 home care was up over November $1,884.94 less than November, more than November 1957.

During December 1957 a total of $3,458.63 was paid for medical hospital care against $1,919.43 paid in December of 1956.

FOR HOME CARE a total of $5,700.77 was allotted during December of 1957 and $3,304.65 paid out in the same month of 1956.

A total of 123 cases were handled in December of 1957 and 94 cases in the same month of 1956. Welfare Director, Miss Pauline Reese, stated the increase in home relief was mainly due to unemployment and illness.

The welfare office's funds are derived from Pickaway County's public utilities' excise taxes, which are matched by state funds. No general monies are spent for poor relief.
